First Citizens Bank

Partner with the SC Governor's School for the Arts and Humanities Foundation this school year. Sponsorship includes opportunities to see our young artists at work and branded presence at over 85 events. Events are held at multiple Greenville venues and reach an audience of over 3,024 community members, art lovers, parents, and alumni across the state. Additional exposure through our social media channels that reach over 22,000 followers.

The Governor's School Foundation raises donations to increase access to the school for students who need financial support, aid the school's efforts to provide arts education in under-resourced counties, and bridge the gap between state funding and the unique needs of South Carolina's premier public arts school.
